NIL SINE NUMINE

Dearest Piggy,

I have a hard job ahead of me trying to say how much I love you and not putting it in the words of a couple hundred of others who love you.

This year from the first to last couldn't have been more perfect if I could possibly make it change. But that is too general — each and every day has been wonderful. From the minutes you and Taffy jumped on me in the morning, to try and get me to class on time, 'till the minute I finally went to sleep after hours of thoughts and wide eyed stares in the dark.

Seems to me I'm messing the first page of your beautiful book up — can't even write straight — in line or line of thought.

What I want to say is very simple but meant from of my heart — you have been the best of roommates a girl could ever pray or dream for. Seems to me — that there must have been a waste of all your super qualities on a dumb little dope like me but helpless as I am to return them I never-the-less recognize and appreciate them.

Looking forward from this very last day of school to the very first day of the next term with terrible impatience because I'll miss you more than you know but I'll continue to love you

Always,
Sherrill

"Peggy dear" Everything I try to say sounds so trite — and honey, there's not a thing in this world commonplace about you — You've proven that to all that know you & even some that do not — You've set a high goal for yourself, and you're well-equipped to realize it — I'm glad I had the privilege to know you —

love always —
Bob.

Dearest Peggy,
Your sweet little letter summed up all I would like to say to you now. So instead of half-way expressing the joy I've gotten out of knowing you, just let me say I think you're the sweetest thing yet & I love you very much.
Please think about me next year course. wherever I am you may be sure. I'll be thinking about you.
Love always.

INTERMONT

Dearest Piggy-
To you - the best of all the gals on the best hall in V.I.C. - its hard as heck to tell you what I'd like to. I think you're just super-that's all! You're one in a million - If all the girls up here were like you - it would be a perfect place.
I'm not going to wish you success and happiness because to a girl like you its bound to come! I know you're really going to do wonderful things for V.I. next year. You're my girl and I'm counting on you.
Piggy, dear please forget all the horrible things I've said to you at seven o'clock in the morning and remember me by what I've said at more convenient hours, of the day and what I'm trying to write here now, - O.K.
I'll remember you by your laughing manner, your ability to do whatever you wish, your deep sincerity and true friendship - I have so much to remember you by long after the last laughter of Second Main 1945-1946 has died.
Someday we'll meet again! I'll be seeing you in all the ole familiar places!

Love ya good,
Pip

Miss Rhoda L. Nunnally

DEDICATION

In memory of our beloved Miss Rhoda L. Nunnally who for twenty-nine years was head of the department of speech and dramatic art of Virginia Intermont College . . .

During her years here at Intermont, Miss Nunnally taught perhaps fifteen hundred girls, and directed more than one hundred dramatic productions, most of them full length dramas.

But not only as an excellent teacher of dramatics will her memory be cherished in the hearts of her friends and students—for she was a real person. Her influence extended far past the class room, as she performed acts of kindness, generosity, and love so naturally and habitually that they were her life. Because of her radiant Christianity and devotion to her work, those who knew her personally, or through her plays, found inspiration—a star to follow. Thus, she not only taught her students the art of acting, but the art of living, as well.

Then let us think, in the truest sense, that Miss Nunnally has not died at all. Wherever her students go with their heightened appreciation of drama, culture, and their deepened understanding of life, there Miss Nunnally will live.

N

A TRIBUTE

In Honor of

Dr. Noffsinger

Dr. Noffsinger will never leave Virginia Intermont. The green campus loves his friendly walks; it will always wait to meet him daily. The chapel remembers words of wisdom and sweetness he has spoken to it; it will hold him fast. Rich traditions will not let him go; reminiscing hearts will gather for many more happy tea-times inside his familiar welcoming door. Some depth of his character, some height of his ideals, some wealth of his spirit has, without his knowing, been made into that intangible foundation which lifts Intermont into skies of culture and loveliness. Bound here by our proud and loving gratitude, he must stay always a part of Intermont in all the hearts where Intermont lives on and on . . .

Dearest "Piggy"

To you, little piggity, I wish everything good and even then that's not enough. V.I.'s high school could never have been as great as it was without you! All those class games Remember? Why, of course you remember the many times the high school licked the Juniors! More fun, and more wonderful memories.

Never forget our whacky times at Junaluska — giggling till all hours of the nite. I'll never forget your solid clarinet renditions, your thoughtfulness, wittiness, sweetness and everything else that's poured together to make you "beloved Piggy."

It's people like you that have made my year at V.I. the very best thing that could have ever happened to me! Take care of it for me Piggy and I'll see you when I come visitin' next fall sometime.

When I get to Florida I'm "gonna" look you up! Hope Aunt Maggie is around! Between the 3 of us I bet we'd drive your mom bats!

I love you oodles for all that you are and stand for!

So long for now
Love always,
Lee

The FACULTY

Miss McCoy—History. Since she has not only heard of, but experienced, she challenges our love of beauty, our hunger for knowledge, our winged imaginations, through her own.

Miss Nunnally—Dramatics. "My night shall be remembered for a star that outshone all the suns of all men's days." Here we think of her as living, who saw the beauty in all that passed, making it want to be there.

Mr. Cooke—English. He who does his living intensely, and so quickens our own. Intellect without dogmatism, wit without satire, faith which, even without expression, glows through a boundless soul.

Miss Clark—Physics and 2nd Math. Our first lady of science, characterized by fairness and patience, with a clean, pure, inimitable beauty of her own; she is each student's inspiration, as well as teacher.

Miss Miller—Home Economics. Her quiet, efficient manner causes our mistress of culinary arts to be admired by all—"but to know her is to love her."

Mrs. Schroetter—Music. The results of her efforts prove that music is as natural to her as shells to the shore, and her being is that essential to us at Intermont.

Mr. Schroetter—Music. Excellent in his field—an unlimited supply of humor and cigars.

Miss Strong—Spanish. With kindness and understanding, she practices the good will policy daily. Always remembering names, doing wonders with a crossword puzzle, singing a melody, spicing the day with a perpetual wit.

Miss Ordway—Orchestra. Artistic temperament; sincere and straightforward—a master of the fine arts.

Miss Pashley—Music. Behind her skillful fingers and the musical magic produced by them is a subtle personality, a delightful blend of intelligence and whimsy.

Sincerely
Marion E. Clark

Miss Pashley

Mrs. Maness—Music. As sweet as the songs she sings, as lovely as the highest clear note, as charming as a Strauss waltz.

Mrs. Willett—High School. Her understanding of and sympathy for our every action make her lovable, and hers is the special irreplaceable glow of a beautifully manifest Christian character.

Miss Rector—Secretarial. An effervescent spirit makes up for what she lacks in size—her warm smile makes one feel better for having been its receiver.

Miss Meade—English. Serene beauty, neat and charming, coupled with a delightful personality gives her a first place in all of V. I.'s hearts.

Dr. Kincannon—Bible. A clear perception of the path which leads to better living—willingness to direct this perception into the lives of others.

Miss Frye—High School. As gratifying as the sun after a storm and always as bright—an interlacement of blitheness and decorum.

Miss Dodson
Miss Burroughs

Miss Fults
Miss O'Kelley

Miss Blalock

Miss Auston

Miss Dodson—Secretarial. Delicately composed of amiable traits—proof that "worth is in being, not seeming."

Miss Burroughs—English. As perspicacious as a math master, appreciative as an artist, refined as a diplomat—our delightfulsome definition of a lady, plus a Peter Pan of a spirit.

Miss Blalock—Secretarial. A true Southern belle, sincere and fun-loving, reminiscent of pink-checked gingham, petunias in a heart-shaped bed, an old love song.

Miss Fults—Librarian. Underneath her conscientiousness and efficiency and broad knowledge lies a heart purely gold—thoughtful and kind.

Miss O'Kelley—English. Her sparkling Irish eyes immediately reveal love for good fun and, in short, all of those things which go to make up a well-rounded life.

Miss Auston—Student Religious Secretary. Queenly beauty and that intangible something we call personality, like crisp blue ribbons, the breath of new spring, a night-scented garden—her purity and happiness are like a mirror.

Mr. Livingston
Mrs. Williams
Mrs. Allen

Miss Little
Miss Hilton
Mrs. Rogers

Mr. Livingston—Psychology and Sociology. His universal knowledge is intriguing, his keen sense of humor, his vital scholastic interest, and his friendly chuckle are gratifying to every student.

Mrs. Williams—Chemistry. She built character with materials which are admired by all; mathematics and science are her true friends, as she is ours as a counselor and an irresistible person.

Mrs. Allen—Home Economics. Evidently she practices the art that she teaches, because she always looks as if she just stepped from a band-box—understanding and genuine.

Miss Little—Secretarial. An unpredictable sense of humor, love for gaiety—the very essence of efficiency. And while she takes from life all that it offers, she gives as well.

Miss Hilton—Biology. Reserved and prim, her rare sense of humor beams from her character as light from Sirius, her glad "hello's" brightening Intermont halls.

Mrs. Rogers—Physical Education. She plays every game as if it were the game of life, whole-heartedly, fair and square.

Peggy darlin' — I'm looking forward to next year with you — Best wishes "Miss D"

Piggie — It has really been wonderful having someone like you to help me with my many problems — I'll be looking forward to seeing you so much next year! "Miss B"

Miss Boyd
Miss Stevens

Miss Droste
Mrs. Edwards

Miss Rose

Miss Foran

Miss Boyd—Dance. Dancing feet and eyes, a dynamic combination of vivacity and dignity, beauty, and simplicity.

Miss Stevens—Equitation. Her salutations, friendliness-filled, are not rationed, nor is her happiness and the area over which it spreads.

Miss Rose—Dietician. Careful plans make her work a success—she never lets us down in the dining room or outside. Stylish, of wide interests.

Miss Droste—Physical Education. Good sportsmanship is her creed for living—versatility incarnated.

Mrs. Edwards—Equitation. Reserved, witty, always interesting—as rare as June's loveliest day, and as uplifting to one's spirits. Beautiful material for V. I. heroine-worshippers, captivatingly good to look at.

Miss Foran—Nurse. Morning, noon, and night find her ready to serve us by soothing our aches and pains, listening to our "moods indigo." Hers is a quiet reserve, a fascinating individuality.

FACULTY

Helen Covington—Secretary, Dean of Faculty. Dependability is as characteristic of her as are her good nature, mischievous blue eyes, and blonde hair—an ideal American girl.

Marguerite Hall—Secretary, Dean of Women. A personality which ranges from adagio to accelerando, her efficiency is backed by an unconquerable collegiate spirit.

Mrs. Harper—Manager, Tea Room. Her thoughtfulness, her pleasant smile reflect a love for her work and each of Intermont's inhabitants.

Margaret Bierbaum—Secretary to President. Collegiate in appearance, manifold in talents, and superior in her work.

Mrs. Bierbaum—Manager, Book Store. Never too busy to lift our spirits with a few encouraging words via her heart.

Mrs. Hyatt—Beauty is as beauty does—first lady on the campus before all big occasions.

Miss Bierbaum
Mrs. Bierbaum
Mrs. Hyatt

Mrs. Painter—Assistant Nurse. "Mom" Painter is truly a mother to each of us; her character is as pure as a diamond, and she is as dear to us.

Mrs. Taylor—House Mother. Her personality is like a multiple-branched candelabra, each of her characteristics a lovely flame. A stately Southern lady.

Betty Bierbaum—Registrar. The essence of preciseness, always calm and collected—as a secretary, one of the best.

Mrs. Hammer—House Mother. "Sister's" radiance is as captivating as April breezes, and her cheerful words are as plentiful.

Mrs. Tompkins—House Mother. Mrs. "T" is proof that "a friend in need is a friend indeed." Her ever-smiling face and twinkling eyes make this fact even more invitingly evident.

Virginia Mooney—Bookkeeper. A smile will go far in the process of making friends, so Virginia's are many in number. Competent, magnetically attractive.

PICTURES NOT PRESENT

Miss Eastman—Dramatics. Because of the depth of her experience, and because she knows us as people so well, our newest Intermonter has immediately been recognized as an excellent teacher of girls.

Miss Jones—Art. Dignified and demure, artistic in her every touch, aware of the aesthetic, seeker of lyrical and eloquent loveliness.

My dearest Peggy,

Darling, with this handwriting, you'll probably never be able to read this but just so you get the idea that you are my pal, it's ok! How in the world can you thank someone who has been half your life and make them realize how big a part they have been? I'm no good at this kind of thing of writing what I feel, but please believe me for it is with much sincerity that I say simply, "I love you." Not only have you been my alarm clock all year — and that speaks for itself — but you have been so damned understanding about all my moods and troubles. The One who made you, darling, used only good & pure ingredients and created a completely lovable, intelligent, and super being.

I'm so proud of you 'cause you've really put the name Peggy Wells on the map here at Ell. May next year be even better and don't think I won't be seeing you! Leave ~~you~~ a space in your bed — I'll be crawling in with you one night. Be good, stay sweet, and try to remember

Dear Stinky - and de bestest Q.M. I've ever known mainly on account I've never had a Q.M. before. Anyhoo - You know, Piggy, how much I love you. I want to thank you so much for making my last year here a perfect one. I'll never forget it since you were here to make it so.

I'll never forget how thoughtful you always are and how positively nutty or (drunk as Chole says) that you are. And that "uh - ah - yessss"! Leave that tooth broken so you can keep on saying that.

Now as to "statin' the case," Dr. Wells - I just plainly love de stuffin's out of ya' and I'm gonna miss you like a right arm and I certainly can't use my left arm since you kinda wrung it off in my last episode of going limp. Gee, who am I gonna have so strong and sweety to pick me up or throw ~~th~~ me under the bed. Remind me someday to throw some powder in your face.

I'm lookin forward to your next visit to ye ole Spartanburg Red Birds + the Crimson Tide - Never Good bye, "Margaret", cause I'll be seeing you in your picture, letters and memories and ah - You may as well expect me in the flesh (new style) in Jacksonville, Miami, Bermuda or where ever you may happen to be livin' cause I'm coming -

SENIORS

We drink a toast to those who have proven themselves the best . . .

A toast bubbling over with thanks to our class president, Libby Dale, whose effervercent spirit and likeable manner make her magnetic.

"You know" spoken in Tarboro fashion will always remind us of Pat Cherry, our Queen of the May—and a beautiful one.

Noted for her ability to get along with people, to win their admiration, and respect, an infectious laugh and a quiet grace, Liz Barnes, President of Student Council has served valiantly and well.

Babs Carme used her limitless ingenuity and organizing ability to create our 1945 yearbook—her heart was wholly in it, a heart of warmth, strength, and humor.

Perpetually in motion, always eager to live every minute of life to its brim is B. J. Grose—versatility in its completeness.

The bright lights of Broadway may some day have reason to present these who are at home with wigs and overdoses of make-up: Trudy Tuzik and Joann Lawler.

For music that soothes, take a listen to that of Joan Cornet's piano, Jan Lawton's voice, and Edith Walker's accordion.

A distinct Norfolk accent accents her uniqueness—splendid personality and positive traits characterize "Bonnie" Norman.

Bobbie Holz, Myra Hamilton, Pat Moldstad, Dollie Sopigoti, and Ann Gist have that enviable quality which enables them to give life to paper by means of an artist's brush and paint.

Light on their feet are our own "twinkle toes"—Margaret Dickey and Lib Dickerson.

Larry LaTourette, with her ability of expression is definitely promising to the literary world.

Certainly the Seniors are All-American, thanks to Betty Hughes, "Sis" Van Dyke, Emily Brown, Dot Rice, Anne Lucius, Mal Pilkington, and Lou Nowlin.

Their upper stories are so supplied that their brain powers will never be exhausted: Betty Hearne, Theresa Marshall, Nancy Preston, and Wilma Comerford.

Gregg's competitors: Geet Hall, Bebe Stokes, Nancy Weller, Johnnie Lu Dickson, Helen Covington, and Puddy Steger.

Masters of the culinary art: "Toots" Webb, "Sandy" Groner, Janet Russell, and Lou Burrell.

And then there are those who are awaiting the war's end with sparkling eyes—Margaret Deskins, Connie Hilton, Dot Simpson, Ruth Harris, Frannie Smothers, and Margaret Haynes.

And in our grandest style, we salute our sponsor, our own "Mumsie," a lovable lady of the true South, who has experienced our every joy and sorrow with us.

Dearest Piggy,
No matter which corner of this old globe you go to — I know you'll have the very best of luck.
It sounds awfully gushy to say that you're a "dear" but I mean it — Guess I just have a "cast-iron" will power down-lined with cardboard.
You've been a huge (spasm of your success!) success here this year and I'm just waiting to hear about next year.
Love,

Dearest, darling, lovie dovie,
where have you been all my life???
I've needed just such a friend as you for so very long and now here at the end of the year you come along. I'm so very glad we came to Junaluska together and learned to know each other so well, and now we have a strong, true friendship to begin with next year at school. Every time I see a "Piggy" I'll think of you and say there's my girl. Yes I'm nuts, but all this simply means I love you oodles and will never forget our giggling spells here.
Love ya,
"Hap"

See that gal on the left?
I love her, too!

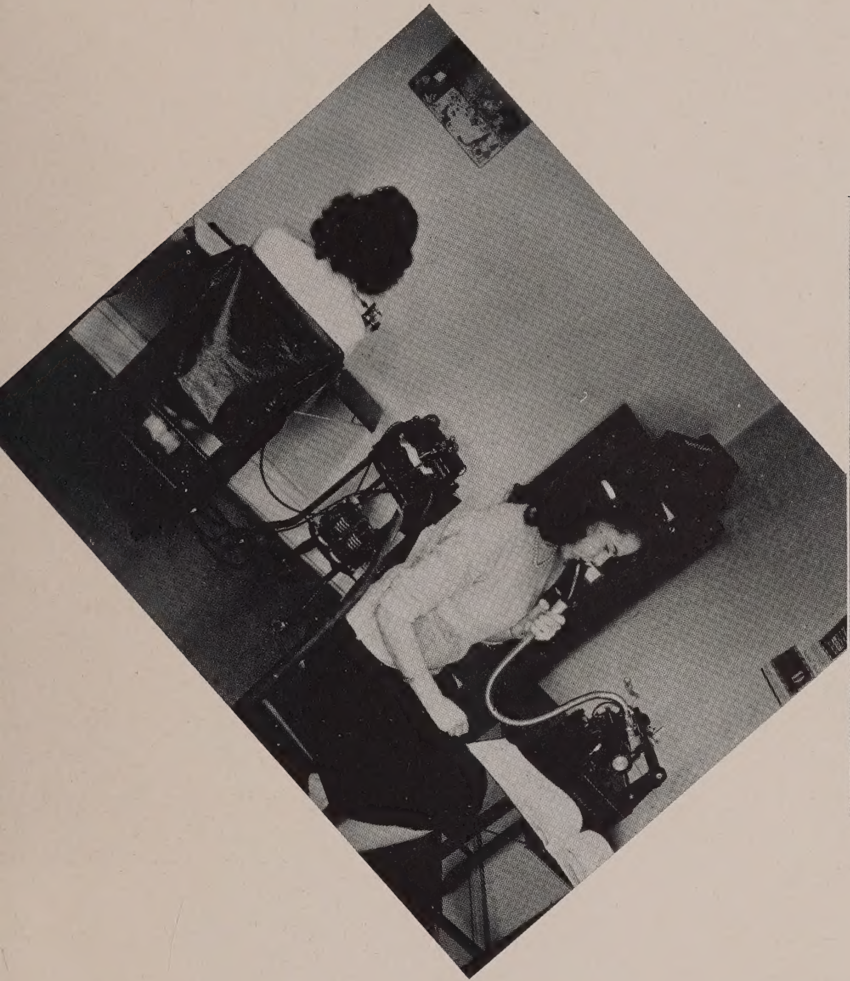
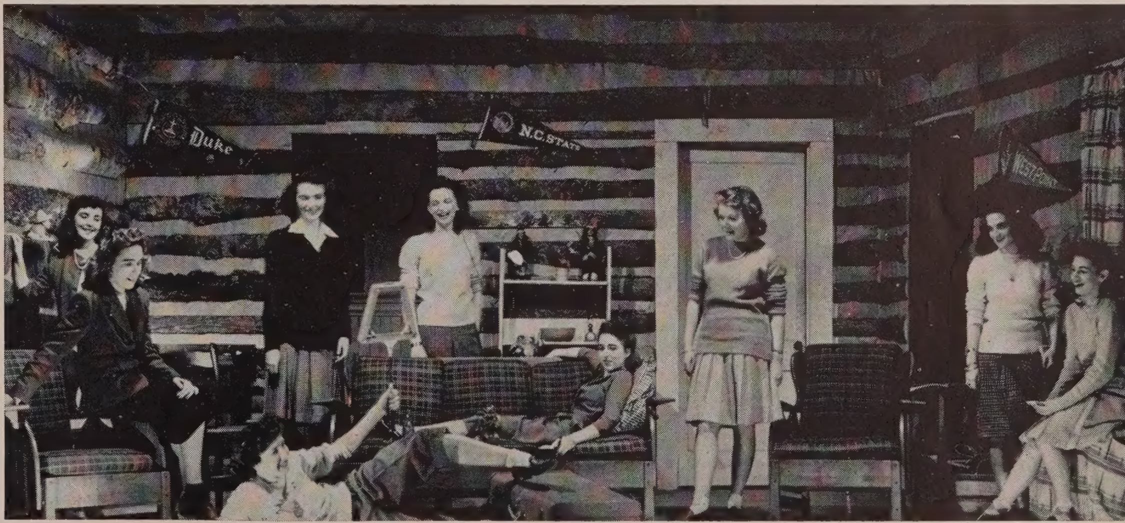
THE CLOCK



"Building under construction" — building of sound minds, wide-awake to the newest field of intellectual discovery, appreciative of our heritage of classic culture. This part of our life is as full of interest as our newest dramatic production, our biggest basketball game. But it will be here, indestructable, as insurance, when the last athletic award has been given, and the last recital are bright reflections.



JUNIORS

"We're the Juniors, we're the Juniors, pride of V. I. C., and our glory shall never fail!" So rang out the voice of each and every Junior under the hand of our beloved song-leader, Betty Morrow—The secret of our ever shining glory? It's no secret—it's our talented JUNIORS!

First comes our capable and versatile president, Lee Andrew. Lee has not only contributed much to the fine spirit of our class, but has taken part in many activities. That bright "Andrew smile" will always be remembered in our hearts.

"Taking the minutes" was "Taffy" Mayes, who did her job superbly, because we all know "Taffy" is one "superb" gal. Orchids to "the girl with the money," our treasurer, Corinna Cook, who didn't have to use a pistol and horsewhip to "get our money" but just her winning way.

"Music hath charms that soothe the savage beast," and our musical talents go to Sue Crumley, who could "make a violin speak"; V. I.'s prima donna, Anita Bullock; and Frances Elkins, who "tickled the keys" with a light fantasy.

To add to our lighter moments were Nell Payne and her blues renditions, and Lee Palmer, who made her audience as well as the piano jump with her Boogie, which was strictly "on the beam."

Our gals who seem to prefer the stables rather than the dorms include Rosebud Miller, Helen Meagher, and Bobbie Phillips, three fine horsewomen.

Then there are our "natural born talents," such as Syl Corley's beauty and the "class sophisticates," Gwen Lang, Jo Latham, and Nancy Forester.

Those blue gym suits didn't look so bad when they were being worn by such athletes as Trudy Kent, "Johnnie" Johnson, and Freddie Taylor. And the pep rallies that kept the games going were led by none other than our two spirited cheer leaders, Charlotte Seh and "Huzz" Howard.

Two of our "better selves" included Jo Gentry and Betty Williams, our Student Government representatives, and Dot Cofer, our tolerant Council secretary.

Representing the Juniors in the Baptist Student Union were two fine workers, Laura Cantrell and Colleen Logwood. These gals have really done some wonderful work in our religious groups which have been a real asset to all concerned.

"No brains, but—" might well be a title for those class cutups, "Weenie" Lewis and Jeanne Grace—the kids who keep us happy.

Every class must have its "collegiates," and ours was blessed with three perfect examples, Pat Ricker, Barbara Avery, and Bette Hutchens.

Students, who were students, were Foncie Martin, Jim McRae, and Pat Schneider. Their names always headed the Honor Roll list!

In the world of French tams, paints, and canvasses are our "Junior" Rembrandts, Armeda Wooten, Betty Odom, and Dot Von Bargen. Keep those brushes going, you artists, and we'll remember to say "we knew you when . . . "

The lucky gals who have their own homes for dormitories are three of our outstanding Day Students, Bobbie Richmond, our lovable vice-president, Frances Proffit, and Betty Sampson. But we were just kidding . . . We think our "homes" are swell, too.

And last, but not least, we recognize with pleasure, our Junior sponsor, Miss Rogers, whose helpful interest we shall always appreciate.

There you have our Juniors. The "secret" has been disclosed and "our glory shall never fail" as we work for a better world of tomorrow!

To the sweetest gal in the world - will be looking forward to seeing you never [illegible]
[illegible]

HIGH SCHOOL

The end of 1945 has concluded many good times, happy friendships, and bright lights for the high school, under the splendid leadership of Lou Coyner.

When it comes to diversity of talents and dependability, Ginny Thompson really takes the honors. Besides pulling the Senior Class through with shining colors, she has led a successful organization of Girl Reserves.

Our greatest hour of triumph came when the high school, under the capable leadership of Jewel Walker, received the plaque certifying our victory in the song contest.

How could we survive without the startling witticisms of Deane and Rogers?

Rah! Rah! Rah! — Foster! Hanson! Lawson! What vivacious exhuberance these girls manage to maintain as our cheer leaders of this year.

The sharp notes of the high school—Joanne LeSueur, Sis Russell, Jewel Walker, Pat Wilcox, and Leontine Leopold—bring sweet music and lilting melodies to us.

The stars on our athletic field who have brought our colors to the top were: Lou Coyner, Beverly Hanson, Mateel Prince, Peggy Honeycutt, Peggy Wells, Jane Waring, Jane McTaggert, Virginia Cockoran, Barbara Lain, Marianne McQueen, Anne Carter, and Claire Snakenburg.

With pride and gratitude we cite our representatives to the Student Council of V. I.: Winxie Edwards, Lou-Lou Winfield, and Barbara Lain.

The best we have—representing the eight characteristics of the typical girl's personality—our superlatives: Lou Coyner, Ginny Thompson, Jane Waring, Jody Lawson, Nancy Kertz, Edie Dressel, Mary Lib Burrell, and Deane Fiske.

We salute our class sponsor, Miss Droste, who by her helpful guidance, keen interest, and cheerful disposition has helped us weather the storms of this year and made the sunny side appear.

+ + THE DAY

These girls are not merely Day Students; we want everyone to understand that they are a part of everything that we work on and enjoy at Intermont. They are, indeed, a part of us, and an important one, different only in that they live in town, hence their name. One of the things we shall miss most after leaving V. I. is happiness we've shared with them. The town's charming hostesses, they've taught us to love it almost as they do, its concerts and lectures, its churches and library, its lively culture, amiable tradespeople, and neat, pleasant homes. With their soft Bristol accents and manners, their hospitality with no trace of superciliousness. Their own warmly inviting "Hut" with the refreshment of tastefully bright rooms for rest and play, home of many hours of glad fellowship, they will linger in our memories as some of the finest girls we've known.

We are very proud, then, to be their hostesses at Intermont. Our campus is a big welcome mat, happily spread out to them.

Dearest Peggy -

To say you are tops would be a gross understatement - I have never known anyone quite so cheerful and sincere all the way through it as you have been!! I'll never forget our silly little cracks to each other as we passed along the hall!

You've got to carry on for us next year, hon - I know you're going to do wonders with the girl reserves - you were made for the job, Peggy, 'cause people just love to have you for their leader.

Stay just as you are 'cause that's the way I love you -

Not goodbye - just so long

Love ya' good,

Trudy

Dearest Peggy;

You are the sweetest little girl N. S. has & I'm mighty glad you chose N. S. Baby, always stay as sweet as you are. This may sound like annual mush, but I mean every bit of it. I hate leaving this old school, but leave I must & with me I take many, many wonderful memories.

Love always,

Emily

Piggy sweet,
I would give nothing — nothing for the pleasure knowing you has given me.

Everyway and in every thing your just about the sweetest nicest girl I've ever known.

It's only a matter of minutes now before I take wings and leave.

There is nothing else I can say because I'm too choked up. Just stay the same sweet lovable Piggy ———

Dearest Piggy—

It's hard to put down here all the things I'd like to. Wish I could make you laugh, but I'm just not in that mood nor have I been since we left U.S. I'd love to be capable of telling you how grand I think you are — in every way, how proud I am of your making the Beta Club. First of all, you're one of the most thoughtful persons I've ever known and one of the most unselfish. Your personality that always stays the same causes all of us to admire you — your positive traits make you easy to get along with — your spirit and energy cause those around you to be happy. Next year will see you doing even bigger and better things I know and you will live on at U.S. long after you graduate. My very best wishes are with you as I say not good-bye - but "so long" to one of the sweetest girls I've ever known. Keep smilin' and I'll be seeing you —

"Charge!"

I love you,
Liz

The Student Council means this to us:

No rules or people or fears are our boundaries—only our sense of fair play, our friendships, and the mother-daughter love that is strong between our Alma Mater and her students. We need for this a closeness and comradeship with our faculty, for their new ideas and clear thinking. Some of us are in the Council, a smaller group than the student body, to make easier this close contact. These are the ones who add our points of view to theirs, for the balanced, completely democratic average that we think V. I.'s administration is.

"Dead-line on all Cauldron copy is at six tonight," the radio-voice in the dining room reminds, "to whom it may concern." Then the editors begin to stir, under the eagle eye of competent "Chief" LaTourette. News is given a thorough going-over, and last minute details are attended to by Mr. Cooke and staff-heads on Thursday night. A last glance at the dummy—headlines, first page make-up, final reading of copy, and placements of stories—then the Cauldron is sent to press in Wytheville, where the ingredients are made into a finished paper and sent back to V. I. After this little thrill of a storm, the rainbow—for the Cauldron is truly a pot of gold. Students leaving the dining hall on Monday evenings eat up the news.

The B. S. U. is like a wide circle in which the Christian organizations of school and town stand with joined hands, singing in close harmony and communion. Somewhere in this fellowship is a place for every girl, and finding it somehow gives that indefinable, but undeniable, "extra something" found in the "Spirit of B. S. U."

The thoughtful, gentle stress of scrupulously planned programs brings great ideas and speakers of merit of which we shall always keep some part, being richer spiritually and personally for it.

B. S. U.

"Christ reigns supreme" in the oldest religious organization on the campus, the Y. W. C. A., a fellowship of women students who are seeking full and creative life for themselves and for all people.

The Y. W. C. A. is noted for making our special weeks and seasons come alive with its magic touch—pajama parties, the Hallowe'en Carnival, parties, and donations for children of the Janie Hammitt Home and the Katie J. Lockett ladies, teas at exam-time, and Peanut Week. It would not let culture be left from our interests, and offers the fellowship of group study to music, art, drama, and poetry. And knowing that in the overturning change that is today, the horizon is widening, and the responsibility deepening, it participates in larger Y. W. C. A. units, in the Student War Fund, the War Bond Drives, and Red Cross work.

"To gird the world with friendliness," then also to show Christianity as the most collegiate thing on our campus is the constant desire of the Young Woman's Auxiliary. Its members have found something wonderful that they want to share: that Christianity is the true happiness and success.

PHI BETA

Admission to the Alpha Beta chapter of the Phi Beta Fraternity is the greatest honor that can be bestowed upon a student of music, speech, or dancing. In its seventh year of existence at V. I., ours is one of the two junior college chapters in the United States. We are especially proud of our Phi Betas, because they are unselfish with their talents; we are often privileged to derive pleasure and benefit from their varied programs.

PHI THETA KAPPA

A national honor society for American junior colleges, Phi Theta Kappa is in its eighteenth year of existence at V. I., which was the first Virginia college to initiate a chapter. Requirements for being pledged are high qualities of scholarship, leadership, and character; and those who wear the golden key of Phi Theta Kappa endeavor to promote these desired characteristics throughout the school year. Intermont's Nu chapter is one of the most active chapters in the South.

CURRY CLUB

Since it was founded fifteen years ago by Dr. Curry of the Curry School of Expression in Boston, the Curry Club has enabled dramatic students to gain a well-rounded background of experience from its bi-weekly meetings.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

Every dramatic student at Virginia Intermont aspires to membership in Delta Psi Omega. Through the efforts of the late Miss Nunnally, our chapter is on the honored list of the first ten in the national organization.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Here, the responsibility and effort behind our light-hearted and strictly wonderful moments, the light of our outside life, the gleam in our gaiety, the angels of our after-hours, the able shoulders upon which our social world rests. And we're not really sure what that quasi-facultorial supervision is that we've heard about, but we know we wouldn't be without its help in sending our morales soaring!

ORCHESTRA

Hear a melody? Couldn't be any other than our 24-piece orchestra practicing under the direction of Miss Ordway in Harmony Hall. Two diligent hours each week—hours of transferring black and white notes into beautiful sonorous harmony—enables this group to entertain us several times a year with its rare quality. This year the orchestra presented several concerts composed of many well-chosen selections.

GLEE CLUB

The music at the command of forty-five girls under Mrs. Schroetter's direction is the essence of beauty—music which makes the heart strings sing. One of the most patriotic groups on Intermont's campus, the Glee Club sang at Emory and Henry, presented a program in order to buy musical instruments for wounded men, and sang at a nearby veterans' hospital. This musical group is often welcomed by community and civic enterprises—and especially by V. I.

JR. ACADEMY OF SCIENCE

A new star has come into view this year: The Science Club, discovery of Miss Clark and Mrs. Williams, who have shown us a new beauty in traveling "from infinity to infinity," on wings of books and news and research—and we see an even brighter future for this new star, whose inhabitants, incidentally, must possess quite a bit of working knowledge to be on its member-list. It's an honor!

Piggy or Pig Eye —
Anything your called means only that you are one among many. Piggy, few people are fortunate to have all the outstanding qualities you have — I mea that — If what I have said previously hasn't express what I think of you the nothing will. Anyway, you're still tops with me — oh, to have what you have — brains, sweet disposition, cute personality — everything. I'll see you next year, darling. Be good & I'll see ya! Love ya'

Dearest "Piggy":

Even though I run my mouth a lot, when it comes to something like this my upper story just won't function correctly (not that it ever does.) All the fun we've had together this year is something that will stay with me forever. When I say you're one swell girl and I love you lots I'm not just saying something to be nice. Although I won't be back in body next year my spirit will be here with you all and never you fear I'll be back to visit you. You and your room will probably be my stopping off place. I have enjoyed playing in the color games with you and opposite you in the srs. vs. h. s. in all the other games. You have gotten off to a wonderful start in everything and I'm pulling for you for I know you will keep up the good work. The best of everything to one who really deserves the best and if you just go on like you have started the "top" will be your goal. You are a true friend and I'll never forget ~~forget~~ you. Please let me hear from you so our friendship won't drift. Always stay just as you are now 'cause that's the way I've known and loved you.

Dearest "Piggy" -

You have what it takes to go places, for you have certainly proven yourself capable this year. You have a lot on your shoulders next year, but we know you can do it - Never forget all our good times, and take care of V. I. for we love her very much. - You'll love Juna losta - and keep the Girl Reserves on the ball. - You are one swell gal and one I won't easily forget -

Love to you:

Peggy,
I think you have what it takes. I know you won't need it but I wish you all the luck in the world. I really enjoyed knowing you and doing all those sports together.
Love to one swell girl,

SPORTS

Come fall, come winter, come spring—there's a sport for every girl and a girl for every sport.

The muscles and joints have really had to be flexible to keep up with the 1944-45 sports season. In the fall, all feminine frills were cast aside for hockey shin-guards and sticks. It was a gala season and the girls soon forgot the bumps, and the bruises, acquired during the game. The winter months found the girls diligently practicing for the basketball varsity. Basketball is by far the most exciting sport on the campus, attracting a crowd of spectators thrilled by every minute of play. These high-spirited, light-footed, goal-shooting girls really put over a sensational basketball season.

Badminton, shuffleboard, and ping-pong kept recreational sport enthusiasts on the go during the cold months of the year.

In the spring a V. I. girl's fancy usually turns to tennis — among other things. When the courts are finally raked and rolled after the ravages of winter, when the white tapes go down and the nets go up, we know that spring has arrived. Out come tennis rackets, balls, and enthusiasts eager for the first "serve" of the season.

A shout of joy coming from the front campus is sure to indicate a bull's eye by one of the budding young archers. But even a thud of the arrow hitting the "petticoat" can bring to a beginner a thrill of achievement—and believe me, it IS an achievement.

The shouts and splashes we hear coming from the swimming pool indicate a great time being had by all. Will you ever forget the "Dog-paddle Review" presented by the H_2O Club at the Splash Party?

One does not have to excell in athletics to enjoy the program of sports at V. I. — the physical education program is put into practice with accent on the fun involved in creating a healthy body and good sportsmanship.

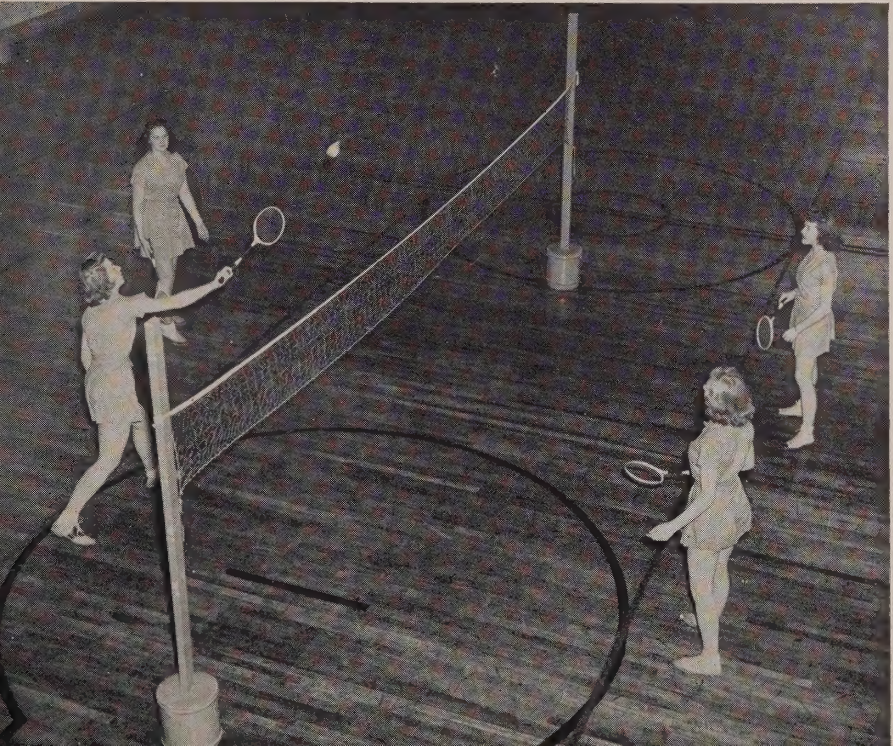
INT

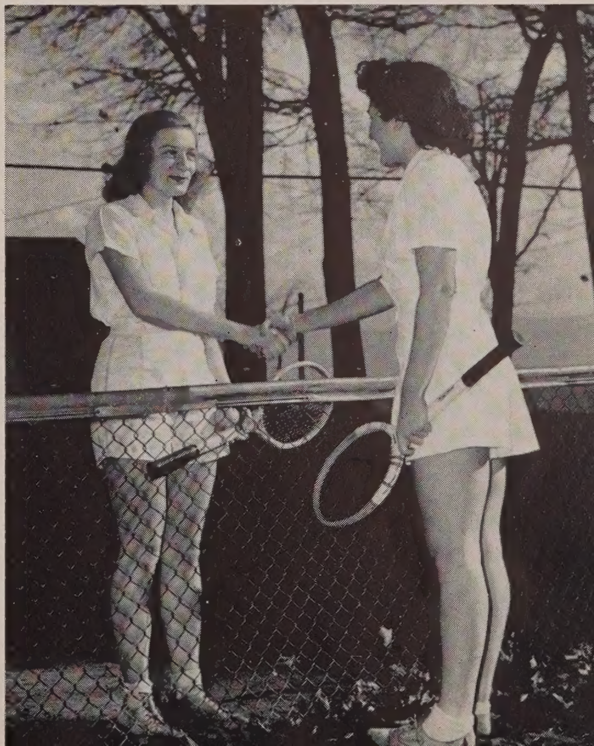
GYMNASIUM
'45

"Take me out to the ball game—Take me out with the crowd" is the color team's theme. Participation and attendance in the inter-scholastic competition was on a new basis this year: the entire school was divided into two teams—black and orange—with each person's points for sports added to her color team, since the two sides were striving for the largest amount of points in sports. Sportsmanship and fellowship—healthiness — cheerful spirits — laughter — "the funniest thing happened" — five pounds off the waistline—good times —these are the definitions of the spring lure at V. I. when girls take to the open for tennis, baseball, archery, track, badminton, hiking, swimming, riding, disk throwing, and jumping.

"Away go the riders" resounds among the mountains that beautify this land of the sky, as V. I. once again hits the trail on horseback to seek a joy unequalled by any other sport at V. I. But all Intermont girls do not find such comradeship among the four-legged friends, and they are not forgotten.

RAMURAL SPORTS





The ole swimming hole is ringing all year round with the happy laughter of girls thrilled from sheer joy of living. If Saturday night music and swoon screams echo amid the buildings around the swimming pool—it is not ghosts of Sinatra fans drowning their woes, but the Hit Parade Swimming Party sponsored by the H_2O Club of V. I.

Piggie - "Remember me from swimming." Well any way I tried. You're a great gal & I love ya.

INTRAMURALS

I'm going to miss you next year. Keep the pool going for me will ya? - All the luck in the world - Emily.

Dearest Piggy —

This business of saying good bye to people we love is pretty awful, isn't it? I can't possibly express what I feel. If I did in your book, all the other printing would have to be omitted. (just one m, they tell me!)

7:00 A.M. will never roll around without my waking up, saying "thanks Pigtha" in very subdued tones — like I always did! Or perhaps shouting "Go 'way and let me sleep", like I really always did!

Thank you, so very much darlin', for being such a sweet and wonderful person. Please, let's not lose contact with each other — 'cause our friendship, I hope, has just begun!

Think of me every once in a while — 'cause I know I'm going to miss you more than most anybody.

Love you so muchly,

Nikki

FEATURES

My dearest little Piggy -
To say goodbye to such a wonderful person as you is something I'll never do because I would rather just say "so long 'til we meet again someday". It is very hard for me to really tell you how perfect I think you are fine as [illegible] next year and in years to come you will be one big success - here's to you! Your friendship on 2nd Main has really meant very much to everyone of us and at 7:00 A.M. in future years will make me think of only one thing - my Piggy. With much love - [illegible]

Miss Evelyn Carme
Editor, 1945 Intermont
Virginia Intermont College
Bristol, Virginia

Dear Miss Carme:

The officers at Headquarters, Army Airways Communications System, were deeply flattered upon being offered the opportunity to select photographs for the feature section of the 1945 Intermont. Indeed, the response was unanimous,-"Why, I have never done anything like this before, but I shall be very glad to assist".

In order to make the selections entirely impartial, each photograph was assigned a number. Then, each member of the judging committee was asked to indicate his preference by individual secret ballot. Every officer was cautioned to make no comments that might influence the opinion of other members. Members of the judging committee were:

Lt. Col. K.W. Klise
Major R.G. Martin
Major W.H. Stephens
Capt. L.M. Roberts
Lt. J.M. Conner
Lt. J.D. Fahy
Lt. M Gross

Without exception, the judges were impressed by the outstanding beauty of the contestants. In fact, several indicated that it was difficult to make a definite decision from the photographs submitted.

I know that I express the desire of every officer at this headquarters in wishing the Intermont continued success. And again, we wish to express our heartfelt appreciation for having been bestowed such an honor.

With best wishes,

Keith B. Utsinger

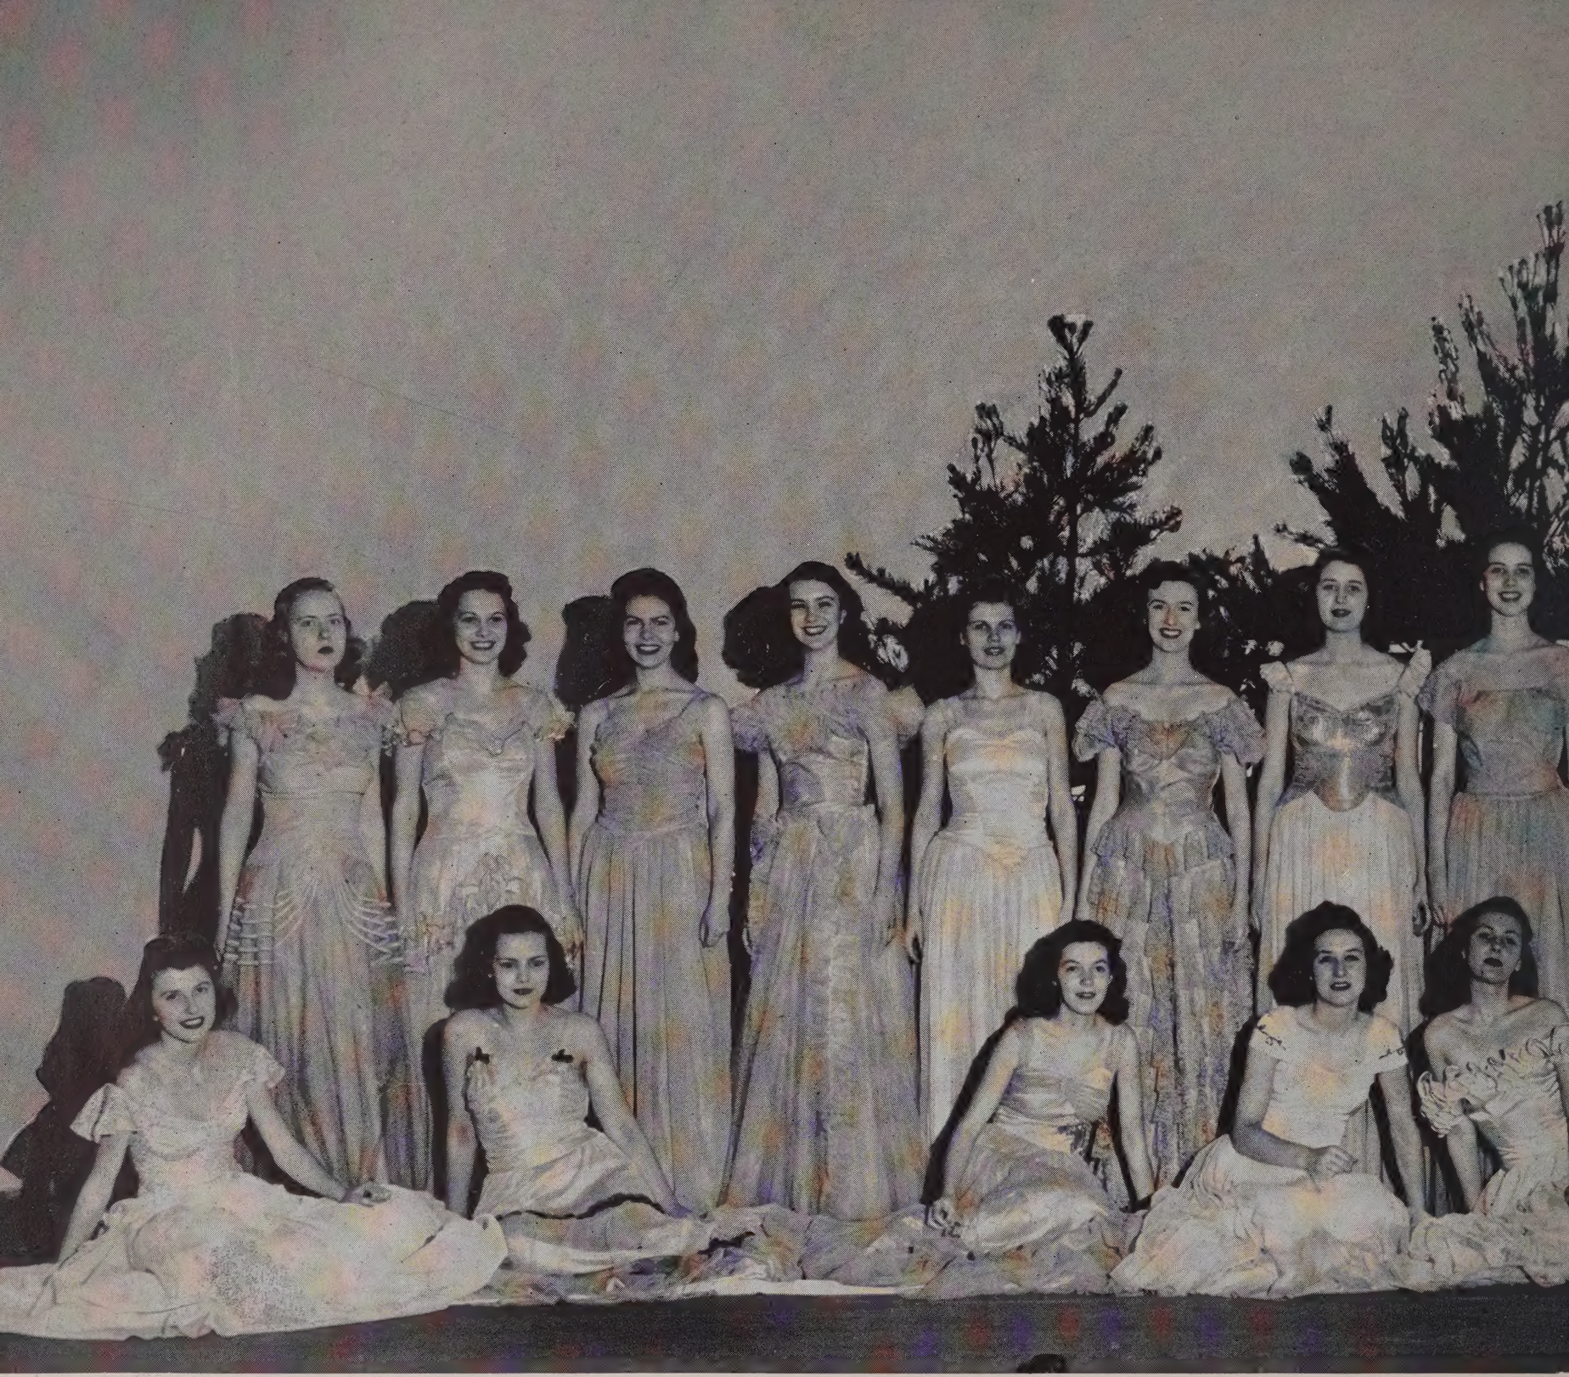
May Queen – Patricia Cherry

Our Queen of Hearts fitted so well into her roll of Queen of the May because she had unknowingly rehearsed for it in being her lovely self, not only on May Day, but through two years of days brightened by her radiance, since V. I. first met her—a gay, fun-loving girl, a gracious, charming woman, a true collegian typifying the spirit of V. I. which we love best. We proudly show you our choice and her beauty in this portrait of our May Queen, Pat Cherry.

And a compliment to her queen, to the Student Body which elected her Maid-of-Honor, and to her own esteem and popularity on our campus is vivacious Anne Chandler, whose rich dark beauty made the royal picture a blend of symphonic perfection.

Anne Chandler – Attendant



May Day — the highlight of events on our social calendar this year. The scene of the crowning festivities was the front campus, where nature has provided a perfect setting with foliage forming a natural ballroom for the dancers. Loveliness, poise, and exquisite beauty epitomized by our Queen and her Maid of Honor. A spectacle no one will ever forget . . .

IN GRATEFUL PRIDE

"All the world's a stage . . . "

Through the quiet diligence of many unapplauded ones, we see the smoothness and glory of great productions. So it often is in the casual happiness of our Intermont life; we sometimes forget the importance, the kindness of those who care for stage settings, lighting, and properties—those who assist on the stage. But at the end of our Annual, we cannot help remembering:

"Mr. Roberts, will you . . . did you . . . have you . . . can you . . . ?" No one but good-natured, patient Mr. Bob Roberts, our engineer, could have put up with our continual pleas so charmingly and efficiently. His shop is full of mechanics and engineering books, jostled among radios and waffle irons we've deposited there for his fixing, but he's so busy with us that he hasn't time to read for himself. He's never taken a physics course, but while we study it, he makes everything in the book work.

Walter Young cooks not just for V. I. but for individuals, knowing who is sick, who is feeling blue, who has a birthday, who likes salt-risen bread best, who prefers hot rye toast. In the few spare hours that we leave to him, he may be found avidly reading Fortune or a Book-of-the-Month. A lover of Shakespeare and great poetry, Mr. Walter has delighted us with poetry of his own, some richly philosophical, some of scintillating wit, some in gracious tribute.

"But I am among you as he that serveth."

There is our guardian-Ingle, a modest gentleman, and a night watchman not with stern forcefulness, but with a friendly interest in us and our welfare. We will remember his personalized "howdy" in the halls and his to-ing and fro-ing beneath our windows on rainy nights with his big black umbrella.

And to all those who help in our halls and kitchen and on the campus, we offer our respectful gratitude in exchange for their faithful efforts and friendliness.

Our Dads' Page

For you, "our Dads," we have one specific wish: that those persons of the Armed Services whom you so nobly represent here may be returned safely to you, their Dads, soon. And say, Dads, we think you're swell.

BUNTING'S FOR DRUGS

Bunting's touches the life of Virginia Intermont as closely as any business in Bristol. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that our Pharmaceutical Department has cooperated with the College Infirmary for many years in protecting the health of V. I. students. All of your films from the bookstore are finished in our Photographic Department, and our Soda Fountain and Toilet Department have always catered to Bristol students. We appreciate your patronage.

Peggy, now
It can't be it is (not suppose so) write but I'm speechless. Honestly Oh, you've been half the fun at [illegible] the whole year - Have else worried & buried (finally) struggled through Geometry after 4 years & passed. Jimmakers something we'll never forget either. Be missing you this summer. Write. We'll make up for it next year. Love you Love ya, [illegible]

Dearest "Piggy,"

Well, I finally got down to putting my J. H in your annual - I was saving a time of peace and quiet - but I guess I had forgotten that Hap. lived here. Piggy - what I want to say - won't come - I'm awfully glad to have you for a friend because I've never known such a girl just like you. Not that you are a freak of nature; but that you've got some certain something that makes me love you a mighty lot. (Such adjectives) I'll never never forget you Piggy - 'specially since these Juno Days: Mercy!! Had happy days at Mrs Allen's table - never lost so much weight in my life. No kiddin "Pig" you are a swell girl - You are so darn sincere and fair - and one of the best sportsman I know. Do behave yourself this summer. And try to visit me. I'll be entertaining my friends at Lexington not Pocotaligo. I can hardly wait until next year. I'm so glad we are on the Athletic Council - What fun we will have. Please write me and you and Aunt Maggie stay sober.

All my love forever
Freddie

Dearest "Pig"-

The never failing tongue and pen of "Plank" has really gone on a strike at the crucial moment. Just now, when I'd very much like to express how very great grand 'n' plain cute you are — I can't seem to put the right words in the right places. But it is hereby made public that I, "Plank-O", think that you "Pig-O" are A-1, 1-A- Class I, primary, chiefest, bestest and all the other two syllable adjectives meaning "better than most anyone else".

Time out for appreciation of your gifts to Intermont. I don't say much* in Annuals *that is serious but you've earned this! If you had done nothing but be your sweet cheery self that would have made you a number one favourite! But you've been that and more - your ever faithful coöperation your wonderful attitude - your clever witticisms and good luck charm have endeared you to everyone. When you list your "admirers" please scrawl "Plank" at the top - cause I really do admire all your aforementioned qualities. Everyone has probably been shouting (via pen + paper) these same praises but never let it be said that Plank can't shout as loud as the rest of the mob!

I do hope that I'll see you again - 'cause there's a special place for you on my "favourite V.I. People" list -

Love - "Plank"

Dear Peggy have you really done yourself up pretty nice this year with all your out standing abilities. Honey I'm really looking forward to seeing you next year. and maybe we can march down the aisle together in May next year. Love ya Lots'

Zidsudy

Dearest Peggy — darlin' — you're the ~~I could~~ cutest little trick — I just love you to pieces — honest to pete — you'll make friends wherever you go — and I mean it. I wouldn't have given anything for knowing you this year — I meant that, too!!

The very best always

Larry

Dearest Peggie,

I'll never be able to write all that I think of you — but I'll just say that your a grand girl and I glad that I've known you. This year has been fun and I really wish that I [illegible] was coming back next year so that we could raise some hell!

Love ya' forever

Dear Peggy:

Congrats to a very very nice little lady. I want to see you more next year.

J. P. Ahen

Dearest 'Piggy,'
There is so much
I could say but so little
I know how to express.
It has been simply wonderful knowing you as well as I did this year & I hope I'll be able to see just as much of you - if not more next year. We've struggled (and how I did) through Latin, but I'm looking forward to French next year. Be sweet as always + have a grand summer - Drop me a line once in a ~~[illegible]~~ while.
Bye till Sept. + love,
Janie

Dearest Pig -
I haven't the words to express just how I feel about you. - Undoubtedly you have the most magnetic personality I've ever known. - Just can't help lovin' you like I do! - See ya in Florida -
Love always -
Joan

To the sweetest and best-round girl, that's you.
Can't write in words how much your friendship means to me. Every minute has been wonderful Piggy. If you ever need a pal just call on me because you are the best tickled there is. I will not let this sound anything like goodbye cause I hope I'll always be seeing you.
You know I love you muchly,
(my original)
"Dumbeat"

Dearest "Piggy," Really, I can't find the words to describe how much I think of you - you're just everything wonderful rolled up into one and one of the sweetest gals I've ever known. I'll really miss you but we'll have loads of fun next year.
Love ya' lots,
"Sis"

Dearest Peg:
You're just about the best thing that has happened to me in a long time - I don't think that I would have been able to have faced "biology" without your "goodmorning"? - Believe me I'm looking forward to seeing you next year and with luck
this year in dear ole Fla. - take it easy - Love ya!
La Rue

Dec

Piggy, you're just about as swell as they come & that's no jive. I think you're just plum, downright swell and wonderful - -
And I mean that, gal!
Just stay as you are now & you don't have any worries!

Love ya,
Harriet

Piggy Well! You know what I think? I think you a darling girl that no one could possibly is well. Someday when I'm old and grey will you come and recite all your funny sayings for me — to cheer up my lonely hours? Thanks!
Anyway Piggy I'm so glad that you have lived across the hall from me all year long and haven't gone completely crazy. Don't know what I would have done without you to wake me each and every morning — guess I would have slept through breakfast a few hundred times.
Stay as nice as you are Piggy, and I'll always love you.

Forever,
Nancy

Dearest Peg,
Not "Piggy," 'cause
we're supposed to be real serious in an annual. You're cute, sweet and that personality of yours has endeared you to every heart in N.G. - including mine. Love you lots, honey; don't ever forget me - please!
Write me?

Love always,
DeeJay

Dearest Peg -
I'll never forget you - not as long as I live. You are definitely tops in everything.
It's been grand living across the hall from you - here's wishing a grand gal all the luck and success in the world. Just stay as you are.. cute, sweet & adorable.

Love you

Dearest Peg -
I'll always know you as "Piggy"! and I shall never forget you're waking me up in the morning!
Stay as sweet as you are!
Love forever,
Bobbie
